Solemnity of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, Year B; 31 December, 2023

Genesis 15:1-6 & 21:1-3; Psalm 105; Hebrews 11:8-19; Hebrews 1:1-2; Luke 2:22-40

"They returned to Galilee; and the Child Jesus grew in Wisdom, and age, and grace." (Luke 2:52)

Collect or Opening Prayer: O God, Who were pleased to give us the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity, and so, in the joy of Your house, delight one day in eternal rewards, through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You.....

Prayer Over the Offerings: We offer You, Lord, the sacrifice of conciliation, humbly asking that, through the intercession of the Virgin Mother of God and Saint Joseph, You may establish our families firmly in Your grace and peace, through Christ our Lord.....

Prayer after Communion: Bring those You refresh with this heavenly sacrament, most merciful Father, to imitate constantly the example of the Holy Family, so that, after the trials of this world, we may share their company forever; through Christ our Lord.....

MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

The mystery of the Incarnation, God coming to live on earth as a person like ourselves, is so wondrous that its celebration cannot be limited to a day, or even two. The Season of Christmas (often spoken of as "twelve days") stretches from the evening of 24 December through the Solemnity of Epiphany, this year the 7th of January.

And just as we highlighted the season of Advent with candles, so we mark the Season of Christmas. Our candles mark the passing of the Season as we begin to extinguish them after the Nativity (25 December), Holy Family (31 December), Mary our Mother (1 January), and Epiphany (7 January).

As always, our Christmas this year is a season of gift-giving, both individually and collectively. Keeping with a long-standing tradition, a major portion (50%) of our parish collections on Christmas go to the Archdiocesan Office of Catholic Charities. You will find those amounts, as well as the amount presented to the Retired Religious Fund in a later bulletin. The RRF collection has happened annually during Advent since 1983; it provides support for elderly monks and nuns for whom Social Security is inadequate.

I am personally very grateful for the many gifts and kindnesses that have come my way during the Season. Collective offering envelopes have come to me from the parishes of St. Ambrose, St. Ignatius, the Oratory of St. Clare; I am very grateful. I have also received too many cards to count, all lovely, filled with beautiful messages, gift cards for restaurants and other businesses, and monetary gifts most generous. There have also been gifts of clothing, books, beverages, baked goods, farm fresh products, etc., etc. I hope to thank you individually and will have fun trying. However, if I don't get to everyone, know still that I am very grateful.

I would certainly be remiss if I failed to thank all those who had their hands full with an effort to prepare and deliver our worship experiences, from sanitizing and cleaning, to decorating, to providing music and readings to preparing and distributing parish bulletins, to filming, broadcasting, posting our services, etc. Readers, Communion Ministers, and Collection Counters help all year long and are most certainly appreciated. You are all a treasured gift to our community.

Forgiving is one of the hardest things for people to do. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others. Go to the sacrament of Reconciliation and receive God's mercy and forgiveness. Then, share the gift of forgiveness with someone – a family member, a friend or a co-worker. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

@Pontifex

The message of Bethlehem is indeed “good news of great joy”. What kind of joy? Not the passing happiness of this world, but the joy that consoles hearts, renews hope and bestows peace. It is the joy of the Holy Spirit: the joy born of being God’s beloved sons and daughters.
