MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

With the Feast of the Epiphany, we bring the joyous season of Christmas to a close. There were four thousand years of recorded history before the Birth of Christ the Promised One, God Himself in human form. We marked that with the four weeks of Advent, which began our year of worship. The final week of the calendar year (25 December 2023) was the first half of our Season of Christmas; the first week of the calendar year (31 December 2023 – 7 January 2024), continues the second half of this holy season. Those two weeks represent the two thousand years since the Birth of our Redeemer.

I am intentional in writing the phrase our Redeemer, because that is precisely Who Jesus is for us as Christians and Roman Catholics. The Solemnity of the Epiphany is celebrated as a recognition of our belief that the redemption available to us in Christ is available to all people, of all cultures, for all time. The word Epiphany has a simple meaning: to make manifest. God Who is invisible, is made visible, that is, manifest, for all to see and receive. The “three Kings,” also known as ‘wise men,’ also known as ‘Magi,’ represent Gentiles that is non-Jewish peoples. (The Holy Family and all those associated with them were Jewish). In addition to the information in Saint Matthew’s account of the Gospel, there are significant Biblical references to characters like these, such as we have today in Isaiah and Psalms. Non-Biblical writers such as the historian Flavius Josephus, mention these types also. As a result, we have a bit of confusion as to just who they were.... Kings? Wise Men? Zoroastrian priests? The word Magi is linked to ‘magician’ and to ‘magnificent.’ Great ones or even celebrities, probably comes as close to accurate as we need.

That’s because the literal description is not as important as is the symbolic value of these three who take center stage as we bring down the curtain on another Christmas Season. It is not likely that these three were at the manger with the shepherds as we usually depict them; they may well have come to Nazareth, even after the flight of the Holy Family into Egypt? What became of the gold, frankincense, and myrrh? What is important is that they represent us, who for the most part, came from non-Jewish lineage. And when we say that faith in Jesus is available to all, we mean just that, available. It does not mean that all must accept, but that all may accept the gift of faith. And most important of all, this day reminds us to ask ourselves, why we do accept the gift of faith in Christ, and what that means for us.

RECENT AND CURRENT PARISH OFFERINGS

2023 Retirement Fund for Religious

In the name of the parish, a donation was made to the Retirement Fund for Religious in the amount of $262.50, which represents 7.5% of an average weekend offering. When the Federal Social Security System was established in 1933, Catholic Religious Orders and their members in monasteries and convents throughout the United States were not included. In 1983, the American Bishops created this Retirement Fund for Religious and authorized the annual nationwide collection to support it. Our gift to this collection helps provide medications, nursing care, and more. Through it, we also show our gratitude for the prayerful service of elderly sisters, brothers, and priests of the Religious Orders.

2023 Collection for Catholic Charities

Also, in the name of the parish, a donation was made to Catholic Charities of Louisville in the amount of $1,750.00, which represents 50% of an average weekend offering. This collection helps to fund many vital ministries and social services, including:

- The Sister Visitor Center and Father Jack Jones Food Pantries.
- Indigent Burial program
- Migration and Refugee Services.
- The Bakhita Empowerment Initiative combatting human trafficking.
- The Long-Term Care Ombudsmen, serving close to 15,000 residents in long term care homes.
- Community gardeners with Common Earth Gardens.

VOCATIONS

Pope Francis
@Pontifex

We entrust the new year to the #MotherOfGod. May we consecrate our lives to her. In her tenderness, she knows how to reveal its fullness, because she will lead us to Jesus, the fullness of time, of all ages. May this year be filled with the Lord's consolation.

Epiphany Prayer

When the star in the sky is gone,
When the Kings and Princes go home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock
The real work begins

To find the lost
To heal the broken
To feed the hungry
To release the prisoners
To rebuild the nations
To bring peace among brothers
To make music in the heart.
