Third Sunday of Lent, Year B; 3 March, 2024

Exodus 17:3-7; Psalm 95; Romans 5:1-8; John 4:42; John 4:5-42

“The woman said: ‘Sir, give me this living water.....I can see you are a prophet.’ “ (John 4:15 & 19).

Collect or Opening Prayer: O God, Author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer, and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by Your mercy, through Christ our Lord.....

Prayer Over the Offerings: Be pleased, O Lord, with these sacrificial offerings, and grant that we who beseech pardon for our own sins, may take care to forgive our neighbor, through Christ our Lord.....

Prayer after Communion: As we receive the pledge of things yet hidden in heaven and are nourished while still on earth with the Bread that comes from on high, we humbly entreat You, O Lord, that what is being brought about in us in mystery may come to true completion, through Christ our Lord.....

MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

As the Holy Season of Lent “flows” now into its third week, water as a symbol is introduced into our worship. In the reading from Exodus, we hear the story of how Moses, through the power of God, extracted water from rock, to quench the thirst of the Hebrew people. Then in the Gospel, Jesus instructs the woman at the well, to seek the “living water” which will satisfy spiritual thirst. Water will continue to have a place of major prominence in the weeks to come and most especially during the Vigil of Easter and the ensuing weeks of that joyous season. This weekend, Jesus reveals a good bit of information about Himself to the Samaritan woman at a place which is crucial in her life—the village water well. He introduces her to a new way of life, a life filled with divine Spirit; and, His dialogue with her moves beyond daily chores to issues of faith and character. Next week, the encounter is with a man; Jesus offers sight to a man born blind, as He guides him to healing in the waters of the pool at a place called Siloam.

Of course, our belief is that the living water, the healing water which Jesus offers all, is Baptism. He Himself accepts Baptism in the waters of the Jordan River as the official beginning of His public ministry. Our Baptism is the introduction to a life with Christ, a life which is highlighted, fed, enriched, by the Seven Sacraments. Those moments and dimensions of human life are glimpses of the divine. Like Peter, James, and John, in the scene on Mount Tabor recounted for us in last week’s Gospel, we have the privilege through Baptism, of glimpsing the divine in many sacramental moments of life. As is our quarterly custom, we will celebrate the two Sacraments of Weakness as part of our Lenten journey. We will reflect on our redemption in Jesus from the posture of our physical limitations in the Anointing (9-10 March) and from the posture of our character flaws in Reconciliation (17-18 March).

With regard to other sacraments, particularly First Communion, Individual Reconciliation, and Confirmation, please let us know if anyone in your household or family would like to help in preparing to celebrate these. Just contact me or one of the Parish Council Chairs, Scott Nall for Saint Ignatius, or Sarah Fellows for Saint Ambrose.

PARISH NEWS

EASTER LILIES

We are once again offering our parishioners the opportunity to dedicate the beautiful lilies that will decorate our worship space this Easter. A list of all who contributed and the names of their loved one(s) commemorated will be published in our Easter Bulletin. The Lilies will be tagged. Dates to pick up the Lilies will be announced.

If you wish to dedicate an Easter Lily in memory of, or in honor of, a special friend(s)/family member(s), a member of the Art and Environment committee will be available before and after each mass the weekend of March 9th/10th to take your order and record your information to be placed on the tag and in the bulletin.

We have ordered two different sizes in the following quantities: $25.00 = 9, $15.00 = 15. The first 24 donations received will be assigned to these Lilies. It may be possible to order additional Lilies if needed. Please make checks payable to Saint Ambrose Catholic Church. Thank you for being a part of our Easter Masses Celebration.
