MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

The Season of Lent does not begin until next month; Ash Wednesday is on 5 March. So, we have this weekend and two more remaining in Ordinary Time. Even so, our readings are clearly pointing the way to Lent, especially last week when we saw both Saint Peter and the great prophet Isaiah speaking of their personal sinfulness. Today, we find Saint Paul writing of the redemption which we will celebrate in the greatest Solemnity of the Year – The Easter Triduum. But we are getting way too far ahead of ourselves.

Before we come to Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Seasons of Lent, Easter, and the Post Easter Solemnities, which will take us into the summer months, let's notice the two phases of Ordinary Time; we are in Phase One now. This year, Phase One has Eight Sundays; Easter is very “late.” Phase Two will begin with the Ninth Monday, but not until we have celebrated the great Solemnity of Pentecost on 8 June. This second phase will take us the rest of the year all the way down to November and the final Sunday, the Solemnity of Christ the King. This “Liturgical Cycle” may seem complicated and it is, but it is really quite beautiful, and I believe, a great aid to the spiritual life. I have written a chapter about it, with fairly thorough explanations. I am happy to give one to you upon request.

Lessons about the core elements of our Catholic faith can come in many forms. As this calendar year progresses, both Saint Ignatius and Saint Ambrose will see the installation of stained-glass windows, a much-loved tradition in church furnishing. The windows to be installed at Saint Ignatius will have scenes from the Life of Christ which will help us to grow in our knowledge and love of the Bible. Those at Saint Ambrose will focus on the Grace available to us in the sacramental life of the Church. The contract for Saint Ignatius' purchase has been approved. The installation at Saint Ambrose (under contract for over a year now) is expected to begin next month.

PARISH NEWS

FAMILY-CENTERED FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN

St. Ambrose faith formation is a family-centered program that provides families with age-appropriate materials for your children to learn about their faith at home on your own schedule. There are no class times (with the exception of Confirmation) and families can choose to participate in service activities that are offered through the parish twice a month if they choose. If your child is in need of a Sacrament, Father Ben will work one-on-one with your family (except Confirmation - see details below) in addition to the materials you work on at home. To sign up to get faith formation materials for the 2024-25 school year, contact Sarah Fellows at sarahcfellows@gmail.com or 502-419-0681.
