The Solemnity of the Body & Blood of Christ, Year B; 2 June, 2024

Exodus 24:3-8; Psalm 116; Hebrews 9:11-15; John 6:51; Mark 14:12-26

“I am the Living Bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this Bread will live forever.”

Collect or Opening Prayer: O God Who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of Your Passion, grant us so to revere the sacred mysteries of Your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of Your redemption, You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.....

Prayer Over the Offerings: Grant Your church O Lord the gifts of unity and peace, whose signs are to be seen in mystery in the offerings we present here, through Christ our Lord.....

Prayer after Communion: Grant O Lord we pray that we may delight for all eternity in that share in Your divine life which is foreshadowed in the present age by our reception of Your precious Body and Blood, You live and reign forever and ever.....

MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

As children of a loving Father, we have focused our attention on His Power as the Holy Spirit (Pentecost Sunday) and His Love in a community of Persons (Trinity Sunday). Today we highlight the divinity of Jesus in the human experience of His Body and Blood. It is that element of our faith that calls us to become what we eat.....to be the Body and Blood of Christ risen and living in our world today. The gospel selection is familiar to us as the Last Supper. Typical of Mark's approach as the Evangelist with the fewest chapters, he actually combines elements of Palm Sunday with Holy Thursday. He makes sure to include the words of Jesus as He establishes a Holy Communion with us for all time. We repeat those words in every Mass as the Words of Institution.

While Mark's is the second and shortest Gospel, John's is the fourth and longest. His account of the Last Supper highlights the moment when Jesus washes the feet of the Apostles; he does not mention the bread and wine/body and blood at all! However, in his sixth chapter, John records the entire (69 verses) discourse in which Jesus speaks of Himself as our nourishment. He tells too of the negative responses of most of the people who heard Jesus speak that day: “They quarreled among themselves,” and “many of His followers turned back and no longer followed Jesus,” (John 6:52 & 66). They may have missed the point of the Lord's teaching, but we embrace it as the centerpiece of our faith and worship. And, we will hear that long chapter over five consecutive Sundays this summer (28 July – 25 August).

Many times over the last six decades, this great Feast Day has coincided with the regional project which we know as the Crusade for Children. It is happening this year, and it provides a wonderful illustration of our role as the body of Christ living in our world. The Crusade is a multi-faceted opportunity to serve as Jesus served, the most vulnerable in our midst. We accepted donations at our Masses over recent week-ends, and today our contribution will be announced as part of the donation from all the Catholic parishes of the area, during the on-air portion of the Crusade. With our on-going efforts such as Feeding America and Mother Mary's Helpers, we go far to fulfill the pledge we make when we say “Amen” to the Body and Blood of Christ,: to become what we eat.

Thank you~ The congregations of Saints Ambrose, Ignatius, and Clare graciously put me at the center of joyous celebrations last weekend, marking the anniversary of the day on which I began priestly ministry 50 years ago. The campuses in Colesburg and White Mills hosted beautifully with substantial help from all three communities. Family and friends from throughout the county and beyond attended and commented profusely on the beauty of our parishes and the warmth of our people. Blustery and dangerous weather was a challenge on Sunday, but in no way diminished your energy and my gratitude. There will be more comments to come from me, but I did not want to wait longer to say Thank You for your generous out-pouring of hospitality and affection. You're wonderful!

STEWARSHIP

“While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, “Take it; this is my body.” Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.”” Mark 14:22-24
