MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

Our Second Reading this week-end, three short verses from the “Letter to the Hebrews”, contains a teaching that is essential to any reflection about Jesus. The theme of the entire essay is Jesus as High Priest. The centerpiece, though, is this verse: “We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way.....”. In their search for the divine before the time of Christ, the Hebrew people, who are our ancestors in faith, found their way to God mainly through what is known as The Law of Moses. That Law, or Torah, was written on scrolls and enshrined in their Tabernacle or Holy of Holies. In their worship, the Temple Priest, also known as a Levite, would enter that sacred space, making an offering of burnt incense, chanting prayers. He did that alone.

We find our way to God no longer through the Law, but through a Person.....Jesus of Nazareth. And the author of the Letter to the Hebrews tells us that Jesus, the perfect priest, makes the perfect offering, the offering of Himself. That happens on Calvary, where we see Jesus not so much in His divinity, but in His humanity. He does there, what we all must do, He dies. Matthew, Mark, and Luke, all tell us that in that remarkable moment, the huge curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple, was suddenly ripped from top to bottom.

For us then as christians, it is not only the priest who makes the offering; he does not go into the sanctuary alone. All who are baptized and confirmed are called to make the offering of self in imitation of Jesus. They participate in the Priesthood of Jesus; indeed, Saint Peter himself calls them “a priestly people,” (1 Peter 2:9). So, it is not only the priest who lifts the bread and wine at Mass, but also the people who present the bread and wine at Mass, who consecrate, who serve as priest, who make the offering that Jesus did, the offering of self. And as we do, Jesus is truly present right here with us.

FAMILY-CENTERED FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN

St. Ambrose faith formation is a family-centered program that provides families with age-appropriate materials for your children to learn about their faith at home on your own schedule. There are no class times (with the exception of Confirmation) and families can choose to participate in service activities that are offered through the parish twice a month if they choose. If your child is in need of a Sacrament, Father Ben will work one-on-one with your family (except Confirmation - see details below) in addition to the materials you work on at home. To sign up to get faith formation materials for the 2024-25 school year, contact Sarah Fellows at sarahcfellows@gmail.com or 502-419-0681.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

A new Confirmation prep class is beginning this year for high school age youth. Catechist Rita French leads this two-year program that happens during the school year in classes that meet twice a month. Any youth interested in joining the St. Ambrose/ St. Ignatius class to prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation, please contact Rita French at Rljfrench@gmail.com or Sarah Fellows at 502-419-0681.

*“Jesus summoned them and said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.”” Mark 10:42-44
