MESSAGE FROM FATHER BROWN

As is clearly indicated by the green vestments (and other sanctuary furnishings) as well as by comments here, we are observing the longer of two annual periods of Ordinary Time. These are stretches of several weeks on the calendar of worship which are numbered rather than being labeled with a special title, such as Pentecost or Trinity Sunday. However, during that long stretch of weeks and months, at least two week-days appear which are treated like Sundays. On 15 August and 1 November, we observe the Solemnities of the Assumption of Mary and All Saints as Holy Days (without obligation). There are also some major feasts of Mary and the Saints which we highlight on our Liturgical Calendar during Ordinary Time. Indeed, the Blessed Mother has an Octave (eight-day period) in her honor in both August and September. Items like these are described in the G.I.F.T. Lesson, The Yearly Liturgical Cycle.

Another figure who had a starring role in the Birth and Life of Jesus, is his cousin and the greatest of all Hebrew Prophets, John the Baptist. The story of his martyrdom is celebrated on 29 August each year, but his birthday is recognized on Monday of this week. The reason, however, for placing his birth-date on 24 June is what we learn from the Gospel, that when Mary conceived Jesus, Elizabeth (John's mother) was "in her sixth month," (Luke 1:36). Six months from tomorrow is Christmas Eve. The Mass readings include most of the details of the wondrous birth of this great prophet. However, the tribute given him by the adult Jesus, and the amazing affirmation given to us is, I believe, the best thing about this celebration. It is found in Luke 7:18-28.

On Saturday of this week-end, we celebrate two saints of the English Reformation, that period in which Catholics in England began to be disenfranchised and horribly persecuted. Like John the Baptist fifteen centuries before them, Saint Thomas More and Saint John Fisher were heroic voices who were silenced because they spoke truth to power. Their feast day is 22 June each year. Since 2012, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has encouraged us to mark the days from 22 June through 4 July with prayer and study around the theme of religious freedom. This will be a part of our worship at each parish and the Oratory of Saint Clare in Colesburg the weekend of 6-7 July.

June 23: Blasphemy and Apostasy Laws

Pray for all people of faith who live in fear of persecution under unjust blasphemy laws.

Reflect

All around the world, people accused of blasphemy and apostasy are suffering for their faith or lack thereof. In 2022, the Pew Research Center found that 79 countries out of 198 they studied have laws banning blasphemy. According to Pew, 90 percent of countries in the Middle East and North Africa have blasphemy laws as well as 34% of countries in the Asia/Pacific region, 31% of European countries, 34% of Latin American countries, and 38% of Sub-Saharan African countries. Penalties for blasphemy vary considerably, ranging from fines to prison sentences to executions. Seven countries have the death penalty for blasphemy – Nigeria, Pakistan, Iran, Afghanistan, Somalia, Mauritania, and Saudi Arabia.

Act

Under the guidance of the Holy Father, Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) provides pastoral and humanitarian assistance to the persecuted Church around the world. For more than 74 years, our donors have reached out to the suffering, the distressed and the poorest of the poor in over 145 countries.
